Free Indeed

Jesus said “You shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free” (John 8:32). As you look around at your life, if there is anything that is attempting to keep you in bondage – fear, doubt, envy, unforgiveness, sickness, addiction, lack, your past – please know that it is attempting to defy the Word of God so as to keep the will of God from coming to pass in your life. Declare right now, “Not so!” The devil is a liar and there’s no truth in him (John 8:44).

Hear the truth: God desires you to be free. God the Father gave His only begotten Son as the price for your freedom (John 3:16). What an awesome price Jesus paid – beaten, battered, bruised and crucified that you might live. When you put your faith in Him, you became a child of God and a child of Abraham, who is the spiritual father of the faithful (Galatians 3:29; Romans 4:16). As Abraham’s spiritual seed, you share in all the covenant promises that God made to Abraham. You are also free from the curse of the law.

The Bible tells us that Jesus redeemed us from the curse of the law (Galatians 3:13), and He did it for a specific purpose: “That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith” (Galatians 3:14). As a believer in the Lord Jesus Christ, you have a blood-bought right to be free. Settle for nothing less.

Remember what Jesus said about the woman who was bowed over for 18 years (Luke 13:11-17). He said, “Ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has bound, lo these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day?” (Luke 13:16). As you recall, repeat: “Ought not I, being a child of Abraham, be loosed from this bondage that is afflicting me this day?” Now hear the Holy Spirit bear witness with your spirit, saying, “Yes, you should!” Then rise up in faith and walk out your freedom. It’s part of your covenant rights as a child of God through Jesus Christ and as a spiritual descendant of Abraham.

Now that you know, go forward in faith and act like you know!
