Love God, Love People

We can try to be sophisticated and make it all the more complicated, but the truth is simple. God so loved the world that He gave His Son Jesus to die for our sins (John 3:16). It was love that brought us to God through Jesus (John 14:6). As God's children, we are to walk in love (Ephesians 5:2). What does this mean? Jesus boiled it down to two commandments: "And you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength." This is the first commandment. And the second, like it, is this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." There is no other commandment greater than these." (Mark 12:30-31 NKJV). What this comes down to is loving God and loving people. Loving God means keeping His commandments (John 14:15). And God commands us to love others (1 John 4:7-8, 11). So let's lay all our sophistication aside and purpose to keep it simple. Let us live a life of love.

"Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another"
(1 John 4:11)
