No Fault in You

There are some in the body of Christ today who are struggling in trying to please God. They are putting so much pressure on themselves to "be good" that they are tying themselves in knots. Each failure, each time they fall short of the mark, guilt, condemnation and shame pay them a visit and hinders their walk with God. Over time, they begin to feel better about themselves, until their next misstep occurs, at which point the terrible guilt-cycle starts all over again. To all who have been there or who are there today, God brings good news: our Heavenly Father finds no fault in you.

This is not to say that you are living a perfect life – far from it. But your right standing with the Father is not determined by what you do, but rather by what Jesus has already done. Jesus lived a sinless life on earth (Hebrews 4:15) and when He shed His blood and died on Calvary's cross He washed away forever the sins of those who believe in Him.

The writer of Hebrews, in speaking about the Old Testament system of animal sacrifice said, "For it is not possible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins" (Hebrews 10:4 NLT). He then went on to share the good news of Jesus' sacrifice on the cross by stating that believers "are made holy by the sacrifice of the body of Jesus Christ once for all time. Under the old covenant, the priest stands and ministers before the altar day after day, offering the same sacrifices again and again, which can never take away sins. But our High Priest offered himself to God as a single sacrifice for sins, good for all time. Then he sat down in the place of honor at God's right hand ... For by that one offering he forever made perfect those who are being made holy" (vv. 10-12, 14).

When Jesus offered His body and shed His blood at Calvary, He made a perfect sacrifice that took away our sins forever! This is why Paul joyfully declared, "if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold all things are become new" (2 Corinthians 5:17 KJV). Paul went on to say, "Now then we are ambassadors for Christ ... For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin that we might be made the righteousness of God in him" (vv. 20a-21).

In Christ we are righteous, which means in right standing with God or, as the New Living Translation puts it, "made right with God." This is entirely because of the sacrifice Jesus made for you and me over 2000 years ago. All we have to do is believe and accept Jesus' atoning work on the cross.

Consider this: over 2000 years ago Jesus stood before Pontius Pilate, who cross-examined Him to determine if He had committed any crime worthy of death. After peppering Jesus with questions, Pilate went to the angry mob and declared, "I find in Him no fault at all" (John 18:38). That's because, in truth, there was and is no fault in Jesus! The Bible declares it again and again. And here's the good news: if you are in Christ Jesus, if you are in a living, vibrant relationship with Him, then when God looks at you, He finds no fault in you, too!

Oh, the Lord is working on you, all right, smoothing out your rough edges and repairing any blemishes, but He finds no fault in you because when He looks at you He sees you covered with the robe of righteousness through Christ (Isaiah 61:10). So even when you and I miss it, we can rejoice, because "There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus" (Romans 8:1). Notice, the scripture does not say there will be no condemnation once you get your act together. It says there is no condemnation NOW!

So, beloved of God, keep following the leading of the Holy Spirit, who helps you live a life of glory according to the Word of God. Obey the Lord, not out of fear of being punished, but out of gratitude for His amazing grace and His wonderful gift of salvation through Christ Jesus. And remember, when the Father looks upon you, He sees His Son, Jesus. And just as the Father finds no fault in the Son, He also finds no fault in you. Every time you embrace this wonderful truth, lift up your hands wherever you are and give our God the glory!

Two Frogs in Some Milk

This is the story of two frogs. One frog was fat and the other skinny. One day, while searching for food, they inadvertently jumped into a vat of milk. They couldn't get out, as the sides were too slippery, so they were just swimming around. The fat frog said to the skinny frog, "Brother frog, there's no use paddling any longer. We're just going to drown, so we might as well give up." The skinny frog replied, "Hold on brother, keep paddling. Somebody will get us out." And they continued paddling for hours. After a while, the fat frog said, "Brother frog, there's no use. I'm becoming very tired now. I'm just going to stop paddling and drown. It's Sunday and nobody's working. We're doomed. There's no possible way out of here." But the skinny frog said, "Keep trying. Keep paddling. Something will happen, keep paddling." Another couple of hours passed. The fat frog said, "I can't go on any longer. There's no sense in doing it because we're going to drown anyway. What's the use?" And the fat frog stopped. He gave up. And he drowned in the milk. But the skinny frog kept on paddling. Just ten minutes later, the skinny frog felt something solid beneath his feet. He had churned the milk into butter and was able to hop out of the vat.

Simple story about believing. You may find yourself in something. Maybe not some milk, but more like some "mud." But as long as you keep on believing that something will come out of it, you will get out of it. Your deliverance is nigh, so never give up. In just a little while, you shall reap if you faint not. ☺

REFLECTION

...As a man thinketh, so is He.

IF WE SAY WE HAVE CONFIDENCE IN GOD, BUT DO NOT HAVE CONFIDENCE IN THE THING, OR THE ABILITY THAT GOD GIVES US, WE REALLY DON'T HAVE CONFIDENCE IN GOD.

God cannot solve a problem that we refuse to acknowledge.

Happiness is NOT a fruit of the spirit, joy is. Don't worry about being happy, BE joyful.

Good ideas become God ideas when they start with Ohhhhh!

Patience (the ability to wait) is the capacity to accept or tolerate delay, trouble or suffering without getting angry or upset. How is yours?

It's not about what we know, but what we say and do with what we know.

When we are obedient to the Lord, we free His hands to move on our behalf.

THE SPIRIT OF GOD LED JESUS INTO THE WILDERNESS, THE WORD OF GOD LED HIM OUT.

The same power that forgives is the same power that heals.

REAL POWER COMES FROM BEING UNDER AUTHORITY RATHER THAN IN AUTHORITY.

Jesus did not release His power to heal the woman with the issue of blood. Her faith released it.

Once we believe the truth, we will not live the way we do.

The Prayer of Salvation

Father God, I come to You in the name of Jesus. Your Word says, 'Whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved' I confess with my mouth Jesus as Lord of my life and believe in my heart that You raised Him from the dead. And I believe that I am saved just as You have said. Thank You for coming into my heart. In Jesus name, I pray. Amen.

I Got This!

I was watching Judge Judy recently and two people were declaring their case. It was a dog case and whether or not one sold the other a sick dog. Anyway, Judge Judy is hearing all the facts about the case and at one point, the case is starting to lean in favor of the defendant.

Judge Judy begins or rather continues to pick apart the plaintiff's case (as only she can) and the defendant feels a need to raise her hand to plead her cause. Judge Judy motions for her to put her hand down, she does and then two seconds later, she puts it up again. This time Judge Judy says to her, "Does it look like I need your help? You're winning." The defendant nods in agreement and puts her hand down, but just a few seconds later, it goes back up. Judge Judy addresses her yet again, "Why do you keep on interrupting me?" she says. "Does it look like you're losing? You need to learn when NOT to open your mouth." The defendant puts her hand down for the third time.

Then I heard God say that we are so much like the defendant. The enemy files a case against us and he brings us before the Judge. God. Jesus is our Advocate. He is pleading our case. He is doing the questioning, but He is also doing the fighting. But for some reason we keep raising our hands in our own defense. We keep interrupting Him in the middle of the case, delaying the judgment. Delaying the outcome. God also said we need to learn to keep our mouths shut. We need to stop wanting to defend ourselves and let Jesus plead our cause.

We are always standing before a righteous Judge and our case is always leaning toward His side. Leaning in our favor, but we don't let Him judge because we are too busy trying to make Him see our side. What we've done. In our own righteousness.

God already knows what you've done. He has already seen it. Your righteousness and of itself is as filthy rags. But in Christ you are made righteous. And He is fighting for you. "You don't need to fight in this battle, My child, only stand still and see the salvation of the Lord."

We are not standing still if we keep raising our hands.

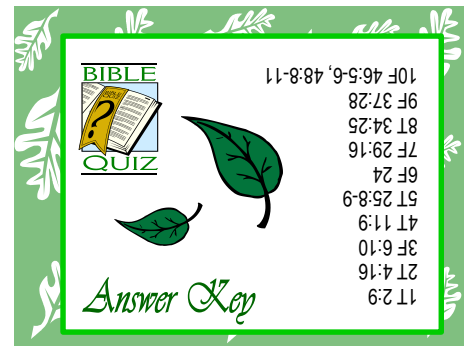

It is Jesus who fights our battles. We just need to keep our mouths shut and let Him. And it is God Whom we are standing before, our righteous and Holy God. How could we not win?

"Does it really look like I need your help? I GOT THIS." Saith the Lord.

When Judge Judy was finally able to judge the case and state the outcome, the defendant won her case. Just so you know.

But God is real.

No Fault in You

There are times in the busy of our lives when we are tempted to look at ourselves and say, "I'm not doing so well." But the Bible declares that we are not to look at ourselves, but at the Lord. Each failure we face is not a sign of our weakness, but a sign of our need for His grace. For it is only by His grace that we can overcome our sins and live in His love. Jesus Says

When we were kids, we used to play a game called "Simon Says." One of us would stand before the group as "Simon," and issue instructions that typically involved physical movements, like jumping up and down or touching your nose. The instructions were to be followed only if they were preceded by "Simon says." For example, "Simon says turn around." The object of the game was to trick or deceive the players into following an instruction that did not start with "Simon says." Whoever followed such an instruction was eliminated. Typically, "Simon" would rattle off instructions quickly: "Simon says do this. Simon says do this. Simon says do this. Do this." Whoever followed that last instruction was eliminated because "Simon" didn't issue it. As believers, we have the Holy Spirit living on the inside of us (1 Corinthians 6:19-20). One of the Spirit's functions is to guide us into all truth and He will instruct us only according to what He hears from Jesus (John 16:13). Throughout our day we will hear the Spirit leading: "Jesus say forgive him." "Jesus says call your mother." "Jesus says go to bed early tonight." In some ways, the Spirit is telling us, "Jesus says do this." Since the commandments of God are not burdensome (1 John 5:3), when we gladly obey the Spirit, things work out well. Yet in the midst of the instructions from the Holy Ghost, the devil will chime in with a "Do this." When he does, be careful not to follow that instruction because it may eliminate you from receiving God's best in that situation. Remember, each and every day, as children of God, we are to do only what Jesus says.
