

Bible Study Thoughts 8/9/17

Jesus knows Who He is.

Every time we say no to what God wants us to do, our hearts become harder.

God wants to give us His best. We need to have expectations of it.

Our belief should be reflective of how great we believe God is.

Our spiritual sight is gradual.

We all must give an answer to Who Jesus is.

It is in the midst of the red light district that we have to stand and declare Who Jesus is.

Take up your cross and follow Him.

Jesus is more concerned that we focus on the message instead of the miracles and the blessings.
